

THE GOLDEN CENTURY

The ultimate collection of French popular song on 12 2CD sets

Charles Aznavour, Edith Piaf, Charles Trénet, Yves Montand, Léo Ferré, Georges Brassens, Félix Leclerc, Catherine Sauvage, Gilbert Bécaud, Henri Salvador, Juliette Gréco and Marcel Mouloudji.

Now, for the first time, Le Chant du Monde, one of France's finest record labels, has brought together the work of the finest French pop singers presented in luxury 2 CD digipaks with English notes and at a special price.

The magic and beauty of French "pop" music is in how the melody follows the specific rhythms of the French language. Artists such as Edith Piaf and Charles Aznavour have created a timeless body of work that has attained legendary status in the English speaking market. Hollywood has even produced a movie on Edith Piaf's life – 'La Vie En Rose' ("Life In Pink").
